Babs O'Rear

To Babs
I hope you are successful in everything you do.
I hope to see you
soon. Judy Coddling

The best of luck in every thing you do.
Judy

Babs,
I hope you are having as much fun in high school in B'ham as we are having at
Dear Ole Lanier.
Good Luck always in everything you

Love,
Carole
Williams

Babs,
Lots of luck to a real sweet girl. If you stay as sweet as you are now, you will have a great success in life. Wish you were here at Lanier.

Judy Diamond

Babs,
I'll always remember you from 8th
grade English classmate.
You are a better student than I am. Stay sweet and be a person you are.
Lots of luck
in future,
Love ya,
Tom

P.S. I sure do
miss you at Lanier.

Babe,
 Lots of luck to a real sweet girl. I hope you will be back with us next year.
 God bless you.

Portia Williams

I like you
 as a schoolmate
 & I hope you and I will have a friendship that never ends.
 Fare always
 Your friend
 Beards

Babe,

Good luck in everything you do in life. I know you will because you have that which will see you through all. I am sorry we didn't see more of each other this year but maybe next year
 it will be better.

Your friend always,
 Jim McHarris

Babe,
 I really wish you were here. Your friendship has meant much to me and I wish you'd blessing in all that you do.
 Love
 Maggie

Babe,

The best of luck to you in the future and
 I know you deserve it.

Bob Stacy

Babe,

I've missed you this year,
 sorry we don't have any classes together - Good luck - I'll see you next year. Jimmy Nightower

To Babs, the best friend a girl ever had. It has been a real privilege to know you. I don't mean to sound morbid
(what does "morbid" mean?)
Don't you love what M & M wrote. Love Always,

Mayla

Mirrah

Dear Babs,
Wish I could have seen more of you this year. I hope we will have some classes together next year. You are a really sweet girl &
I wish you all the luck
in the world in the future.

Lots of Love,
Jean Kersh

Babs,
You are a real sweet girl. I really miss you & hope you move back soon. Good luck and God bless you.
Love ya,
Toni Beale

THE ORACLE STAFF
PROUDLY PRESENTS TO YOU

Babs,
I have missed being in school with you this year. I hope that you can move back soon.
Good luck in the future years.

OREWORD

This is your Oracle, the voice of Lanier, speaking to you. Since ancient times the Oracle has been a symbol of wisdom and prophecy. In early Rome and Greece, great leaders sought the respected advice of such well known prophets as the Delphic Oracle, in whose books supposedly were recorded both the history and the destiny of men.

Since 1912, our Oracle has kept a record of Lanier, her students, and her faculty. In effect, all that is of importance—the friends, the classes, the parties and good times—all of these are herein recorded.

It is here, in future years, that we shall come to find the names and pictures of former classmates, which, being found, will bring back thoughts of high school days, the most wonderful times of our lives. The Oracle actually holds the future, as well as the past, of Lanier in its covers, for what it chooses to preserve on its pages will live on in spite of the passing of the years.

Therefore, listen to the prophecies that your Oracle, wiser than you imagined, has to offer. Listen, Seniors, for you shall never pass this way again; your Oracle holds for you the record of your memorable Senior year at Lanier—a year never to be forgotten. Juniors and Sophomores, the Oracle also has a message for you to take with you into your future years. Therefore, listen to this message and heed it well, for as James Montgomery once wrote:

"In me all human knowledge dwells;
The Oracle of Oracles,
Past, present, future, I reveal,
Or in oblivion's silence seal;
What I preserve can perish never;
What I forego is lost forever.
All that reflected memory stores,
Or rich imagination pours;
All that the wit of man conceives,
All that he wishes, hopes, believes;
All that he loves, or fears, or hates;
All that to Heaven and earth relates
These are the lessons that I teach
In speaking silence, silent speech."

MRS. MERLE McCORKLE

MR. JAMES LAWRENCE

DEDICATION

We, the Oracle Staff of 1963, wish to dedicate our Oracle to two people who have given so willingly of themselves to us during our years at Lanier. These two, who have excelled in such different fields, have given the best of their knowledge, character, and experience to every senior who has had the privilege of being in their classes.

With a song in her heart, Mrs. McCorkle, with her beautiful musical programs presented at Homecoming, Thanksgiving, and Christmas, has created a feeling of excitement, pride, and reverence which permeates the heart and spirit of the entire student body. She has given of her time, her energy, and her God-given talent to give pleasure and inspiration not only to us at Lanier but also to hundreds who have through the years enjoyed her beautiful spring concerts.

Mr. Lawrence, by instilling in his students a desire to learn, an eagerness to study, and an ability to reason, has done much to guide and lead them. First creating in his physics students a natural curiosity about the sciences of life and then showing them the means by which they are to satisfy their hunger for knowledge, Mr. Lawrence teaches his students to think for themselves. He is contributing his share to the future world through the excellent scientific training and strong character development he is passing on to his students.

Realizing the tremendous influence of these two fine people, we dedicate this book to

and
MR. JAMES LAWRENCE

F A C U L T Y

Nothing but praise is due to you, for you —always willing to learn as you teach—have served Lanier and her students well.

Our nation has been built around the idea and belief that human personality is the highest, most sacred thing we know. No teacher can estimate the force of her personality on the personalities of those entrusted to her, but she might well pray the following prayer, which must remain anonymous, though we do know that it was found in the notebook of a teacher:

"May every soul that touches mine
Be it the slightest contact, get therefrom some good,
Some little grace, one kindly thought,
One aspiration yet unfelt, one bit of courage
For the darkening sky, one gleam of faith
To brave the thickening ills of life,
One glimpse of brighter skies beyond the gathering mist,
And Heaven a surer heritage."

Mr. Grissett helps some future secretaries.

Our Supervisor, Mrs. Lingo, takes a coffee break with teachers after an observation lesson.

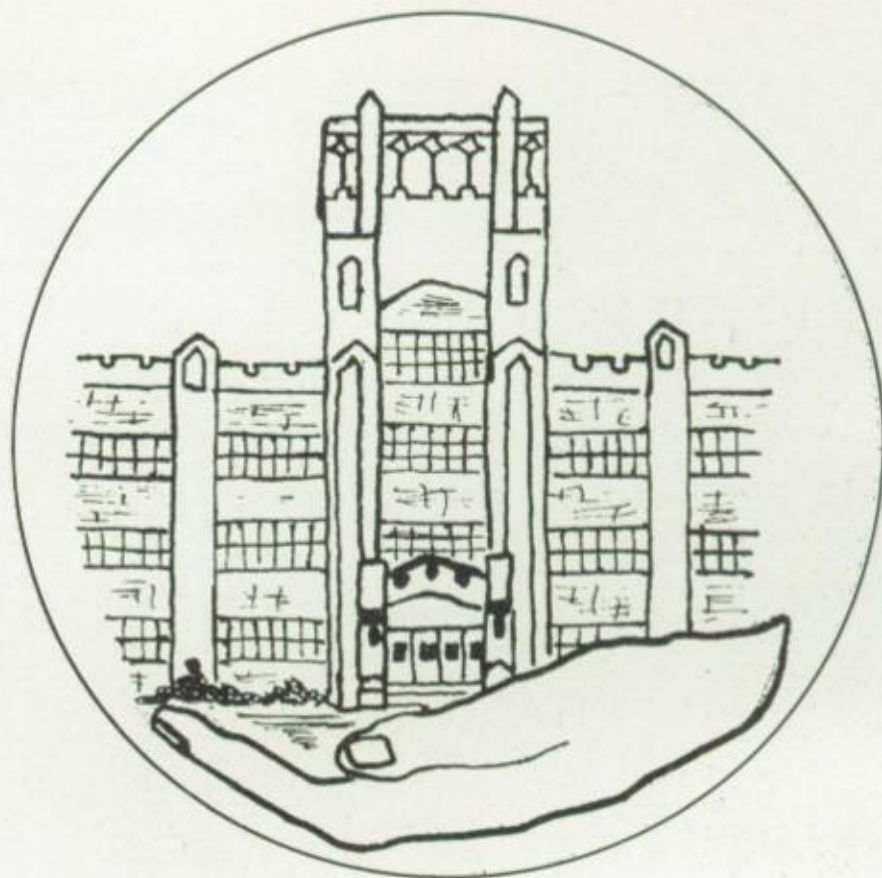

Mrs. Armstrong directs her French "lab" work.

Our principals look happy!

C L A S S E S

The future lies in your hands. Whatever word of wisdom I might have given you, you must take and mold into a future to fulfill my brightest visions.

DEAR LANIER...

... tho' fleeting time
May bear us far away from thee,
Forever in thy hallowed halls
Each heart will dwell in loyalty.
Faithful to the blue and white
We will be.
And before thy shrine of knowledge
We will kneel to thee.
LANIER!

THE CLASS OF '64 SPEAKS

As Juniors, we have had a busy and full school year. Many of us helped during the opening days to assist the new Sophomores in their efforts to find their way about our school halls. Many of us went out for football, and all of us have loyally supported our teams in all athletic events. School has been a rich experience for us this year as we have taken more advanced studies and as we have learned more about how to study.

Since the financing of the big Junior-Senior Prom is our responsibility, we have this year helped in three money raising projects — the selling of the pompoms during the fall season, the checking of cars in the parking lots all year, and the helping with the faculty-varsity basketball game. We have great plans for this big social event in the spring, for all of our class are eagerly anticipating our next year as Seniors.

JUNIOR CLASS ACTIVITIES

Marian Fassman, Ricky James, and Don Rutland meet at Leigh Stanford's home before the big Junior-Senior Prom.

The Juniors Jim Llewellyn, Hugh Ashurst, and Arthur Bowman have actually found a student's car that is properly parked.

SOPHOMORES 1962-63

Nine hundred pairs of wide bright eyes gazed at the halls of Lanier for the first time last September. The awe and terror reflected in nine hundred faces soon changed, however, to expressions of the joy and wisdom that accompany all Lanier students. After just a few days at Lanier, the Sophomores had made a place for themselves in the busy circle of studies and fellowship. The Sophomore girls were especially successful in joining into the "fellow"ship.

Each new experience at Lanier was worth its weight in gold to these Sophomores. They tackled every job and entered into every activity with a fresh and energetic spirit. Election of their class officers, their first Homecoming, football and basketball games, the trips to P.C. over A.E.A., club meetings, dances, and good old Lanier semester exams turned these once naive Sophomores into seasoned Lanier Poets. This class has come through with flying colors in all phases of Lanier life. Lanier will be in good hands with this class of '65.

A typical overcrowded Sophomore English class rejoices over the return of a set of themes.

Quito to Priscilla on first day of school: "Your Homeroom is that way, but you might prefer the boys' gym!"

Ronnie to Rebecca: "Mr. Lawrence's Senior homeroom is down there. You'll like that; it's an all-boy section."

H O N O R S

Honors have been bestowed upon you, and wisely. You have shown the willingness to work diligently and the ability to develop your inherent talents. Pursue this course and life will be richer for you and others.

NATIONAL MERIT FINALISTS

FIRST ROW: Louise Trawick, Candy Cloud, Chuck Muckenfuss, Becky Henderson, Jane Fry. SECOND ROW: Rob Houston, Mike Jennison, Tom Watkins, David Snead, Chuck Cooper. Not Pictured: Bob Wine.

These eleven Seniors were chosen on the basis of the Scholarship Qualifying Test and the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination as finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Competition. The ORACLE extends recognition and congratulations to them, for they have brought national recognition not only to themselves but also to Lanier.

WREATH AND STAR SOCIETY

The Wreath And Star Society is composed of R.O.T.C. cadets who are scholastically in the top ten percent of the military. These boys should be congratulated for maintaining such high standards not only in their military work but also in all their school work.

ALTERNATE SECTION REPRESENTATIVES

A section representative must possess a willing heart, a strong back, and fast legs, because his duties are numerous. His willing heart promotes all school activities; one favorite daily responsibility is that of devotions in each homeroom. His strong back assists the substitute teacher by acquainting her with the schedule of the class. His fast legs get the section report to the office on time. Although the duties of the section representative might seem minor, they combine into a unit which, along with the Student Council, forms a strong student government.

Section Representatives patronize Jan Jones.

CHEER

The purpose of the Cheerleaders is to lead the student body in cheering for the team during all games and rallies. Their enthusiasm helps to boost the spirit of the spectators and the confidence of the team. Lanier has a great deal to be proud of in the ten girls who have served as cheerleaders this year.

Nadya Sharpe, Sr.

Lucy Oliver, Sr.

LEADERS

These girls worked unceasingly through football and basketball season, cheering the Big Blue through every game, good or bad. Our four Seniors, who have put their whole hearts into serving their school, will be missed next year. However, the Junior and Sophomore cheerleaders will be back in the fall, leading their team on to victory. The students of Lanier wish to thank these ten girls for all the help and loyal support they have given this year.

BAND

After winning fifth place in the nation in the Music Man Competition Festival in Mason City, Iowa, last summer, the Lanier Band has had a reputation to live up to. This it has done splendidly throughout the year. Lanier can indeed be proud of her Band, which is made up of dedicated and hardworking individuals.

The Dance Band is a learning organization that strives to teach how to play jazz well. It emphasizes intonation, style, phrasing, and preciseness. To the school the dance band represents a medium through which the high school students find a practical application for their desire of modern popular music. The musical standards of the dance band are the same as for the concert band with the exception of the possibility of a higher level of technical skill demanded, since most of the members are first or close to first chair players.

1962-63 COACHING STAFF

GEORGE "SNOOZY" JONES
Track Coach

"Snoozy," the wit of the athletic department, is known for getting the most out of his athletes. In his second year at Lanier, Coach Jones is one of the most popular faculty members.

BILLY LIVINGS
Baseball Coach

Coach Livings, better known as Mr. Touch-down, is known for his brilliant baseball strategy, most of which is formulated by his wife, Rosemarie.

BOBBY WILSON
Athletic Director
Head Football Coach

Coach Wilson, as star punter and quarterback in college, graduated from the University of Alabama. During his tenure at Lanier, he has compiled an enviable record, which includes Lanier's 1961 state championship.

RAYMOND BOYKIN
"B" Team Football Coach

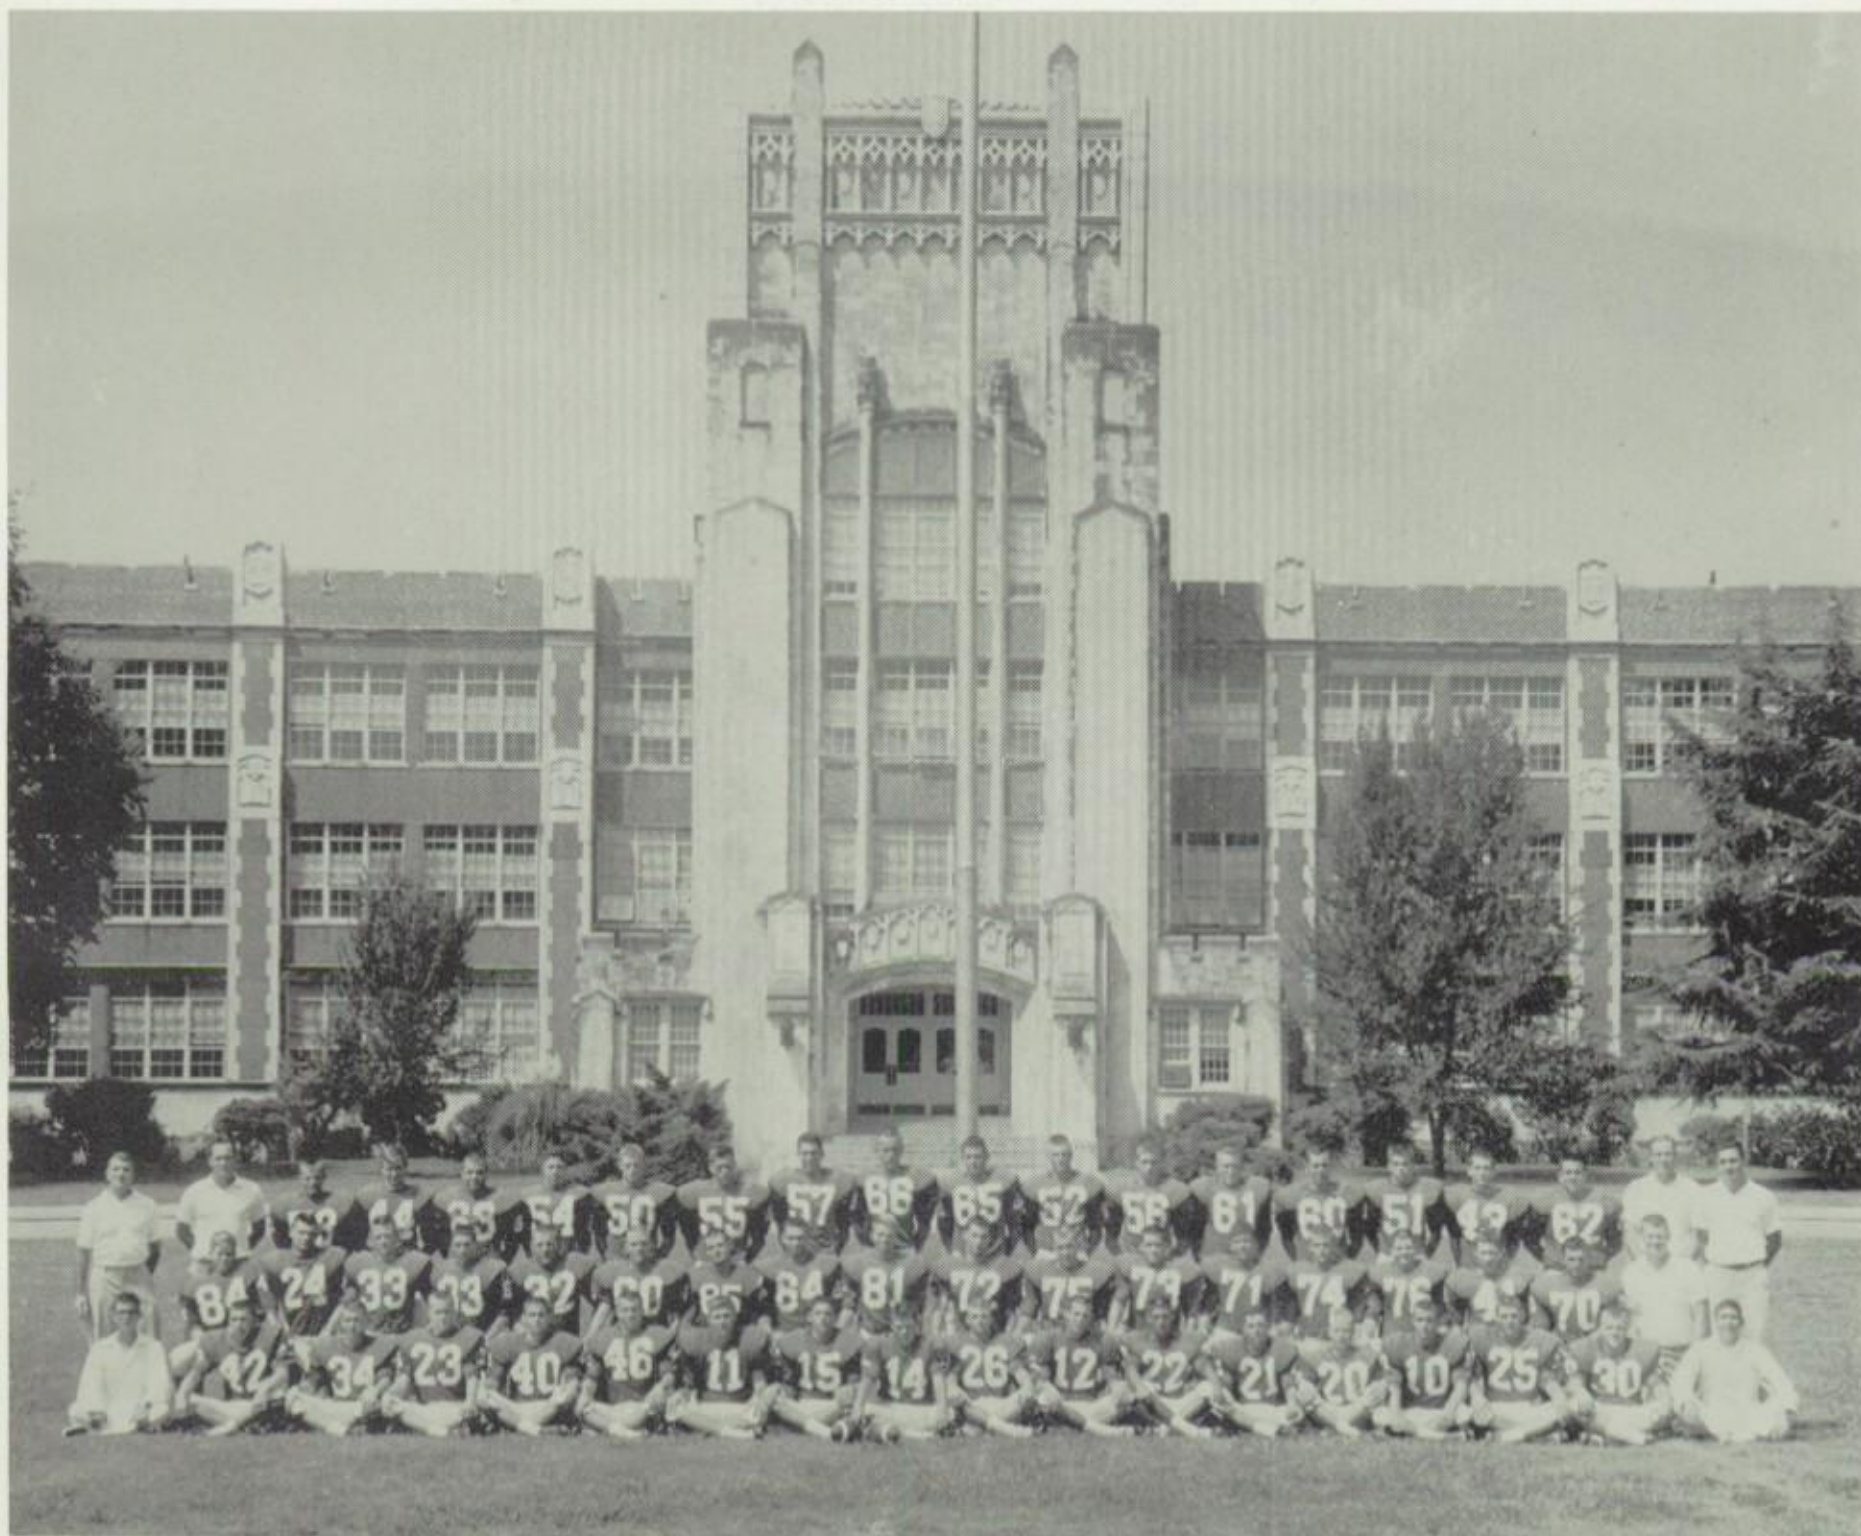

An Auburn graduate, "Root" has been responsible for the development of many fine Lanier stars. His 1962 edition, probably the finest of all "Baby Poet" elevens, was undefeated.

BILL JOINER
Basketball Coach

Coach Joiner, known to all as "Red," was a member of Lanier's 1949 state championship team and in his first year back at Lanier coached the team to another championship.

1962 FOOTBALL TEAM

DUKE JONES,
Jr. Manager

Duke was instrumental in intercepting the sponges and kick-off tees and will be depended on heavily next season.

CHARLES FRENCH,
Sr. Manager

Our senior manager was very adept at carrying the water bucket and towel to the "Big Blue" players during the time-outs.

1962 FOOTBALL TEAM

WAYNE COOK, Sr. End, Co-Capt.
A starter for two years, Lanier's contribution to the All-State Team will long be remembered as one of the finest ends in Lanier's history.

BEN McDAVID, Sr. Center, Capt.
Ben's three years starting play and outstanding leadership were rewarded with a scholarship to Auburn.

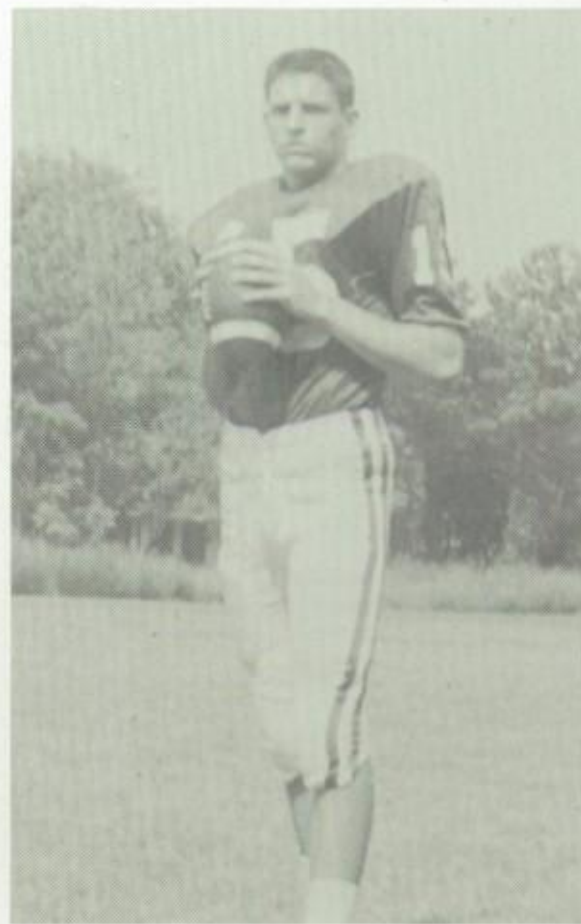

DENNY TAYLOR, Sr. HB, Co-Capt.
A defensive starter as a junior. This year Denny made the All-City Team as an offensive HB. His record of leadership and yards gained speaks for itself.

BILL YATES, Jr. FB.
Bill stepped into the starting fullback job at mid-season and proved that he will be a top candidate for All-State honors next year.

TERRY SHIVER, Sr. HB.
Terry, probably the fastest man in the Poet backfield, used his great speed to make up for his lack of size.

BILLY MILLER, Sr. QB.
Although handicapped by the fact that he was a transfer student, Billy's exceptional passing gained him the quarterback job.

1962 FOOTBALL TEAM

ROBERT ADAMS, Sr. FB.

An All-City linebacker, Robert was invaluable to the Poet defense.

JOHN LITTLE, Sr. HB.

Despite his many injuries "Hard-luck John" gained All-City honors as a defensive half-back.

MIKE HAIGLER, Sr. QB.

An injured knee kept Mike from fulfilling the great promise he showed as a sophomore.

PIET NIEMAN, Jr. HB.

Piet, a starter on defense this year, will be counted on to start both ways next year.

JACKIE VANN, Sr. FB.

Another two-year starter, Jackie was greatly hampered by injuries this year.

RANDY FARMER, Sr. HB.

A two-year letterman, Randy bolstered both the Poet offense and defense.

1962 FOOTBALL TEAM

TOMMY LUNCEFORD, Jr. QB.
Tommy saw duty as the Poet's number one punter and is being groomed for the quarterback post next year.

JOHN GLASSCOCK, Sr. QB.
Starting at the important position of safety, John was one of the stalwarts in the stout Poet defense.

HUNTER POPE, Sr. HB.
Seeing lots of action his senior year, "speedy" Hunter turned in an always dependable performance carrying the payload.

CHARLES BETTS, Sr. HB.
For three years Charles proved that in this game size isn't everything.

FRANK HAGOOD, Jr. QB.
A dynamic passer and signal caller, Frank will be in the limelight next year at the quarterback slot.

MICKEY MASK, Jr. QB.
An inspiration to all, Mickey is living proof that a big heart can overcome the lack of size.

1962 FOOTBALL TEAM

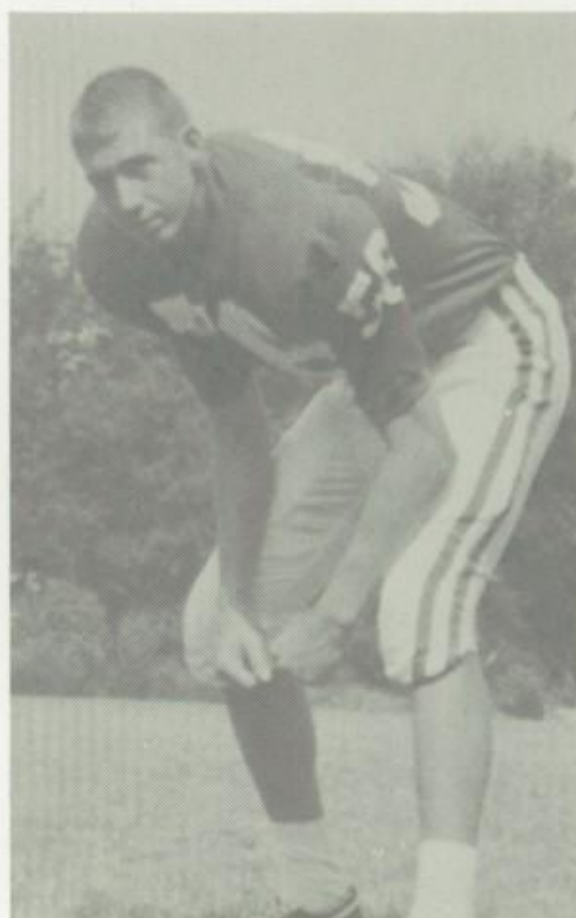

GEORGE YOUNG, Sr. End

George's outstanding play both on offense and defense gained him a scholarship to Chattanooga.

BUDDY HALL, Jr. End

Gaining a position on the All-City team this year showed that Buddy will be counted on heavily next year.

MIKE ZUBER, Jr. End

Before suffering a broken arm mid-season, Mike played lots of good varsity football. Next year he will probably hold down a starting end position.

ROGER EVANS, Sr. End

A senior letterman, Roger showed great effort in his three years of play.

PHILLIP ROTH, Jr. End

Next year Phillip will be a returning senior end.

TOMMY HERRING, Sr. Guard

Another of the Poets' outstanding linemen, Tommy was a star on both the offense and defense.

1962 FOOTBALL TEAM

BOB CHILDS, Soph. Guard
Bob is to be congratulated for achieving the rare feat of starting as a sophomore. Great things are expected of Bob.

DAN MARKS, Sr. Guard
"Moose" was greatly instrumental as another member of the starting eleven, one of the highest scoring of all Poet teams.

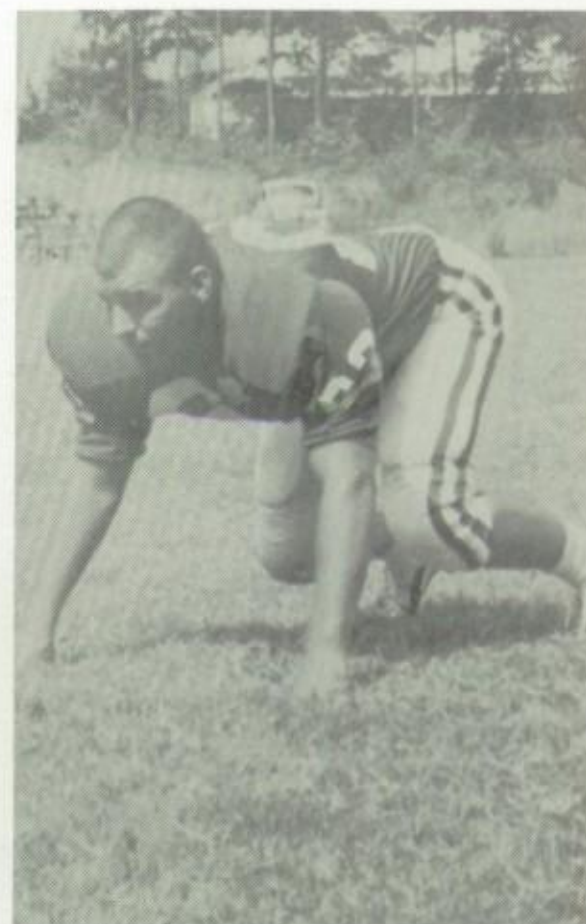

BILLY ALBRIGHT, Sr. Guard
A two year letterman, Billy's outstanding defensive play will be sorely missed next year.

JOHN RICHARDSON, Sr. Tackle
One of the tackles who never are fully recognized, John played hardest, got dirtiest, and did it quickest.

LARRY ELLIOT, Sr. Tackle
Larry successfully made the difficult switch from end to tackle and gained a starting post at the interior line position.

JIMMY GRUBBS, Sr. Tackle
A nervous stomach hindered "Grubby" this year, but when well he showed the greatness that he demonstrated by lettering his sophomore year.

1962 FOOTBALL TEAM

GLENN BULLOCK, Jr. Tackle
A promising lineman for the future, Glenn is expected to fill in next year for graduating line stalwarts.

GARY WOOLARD, Jr. Tackle
Combining outstanding football ability with his "handy" size, Gary played an indispensable role in the Blue forward wall.

TOMMY REGISTER, Sr. Tackle
The biggest man on the Poet squad, "Big Red" was outstanding at the defensive tackle position.

GENE BROOKER, Jr. Center
Gene, who snapped for punts and extra points, will be counted on to start next year.

FREDDY WEISIGER, Jr. Center
A true defensive specialist, Freddy, pound for pound, is dynamite.

RUPERT PHILLIPS, Sr. End
A senior reservist who stepped in to do the job when called upon.

1963 FOOTBALL

LANIER 14—SELMA 14

For the first time in years, Lanier failed to triumph over the Parrish High Rams of Selma in their traditional season opener. Recovering their own kickoff after the Poets' early fumble, the fired-up Rams surprised everyone by quickly scoring against the vaunted blue defense. Lanier was never able to surmount the hustling Rams score, although fullback Robert Adams evened accounts at fourteen all, when he scored his second T.D. of the night.

LANIER 7—TUSCALOOSA 7

Seeking sweet revenge after suffering defeat at the hands of the Tuscaloosa Black Bears last year, the Blue Wave outfought and outplayed the Tuscaloosans in front of an awe-stricken student body. But they could do no more than tie again. With quarterbacks Glasscock and Miller along with that tough Poet front line leading the way, Lanier was in Tuscaloosa territory most of the game. Their only score, however, came in the second quarter by fullback Robert Adams. Later in the game, with the score tied at 7-7, the Poets penetrated deep enough to allow Ben McDavid to attempt field goals twice, but both were unsuccessful.

LANIER 19 — BANKS 14

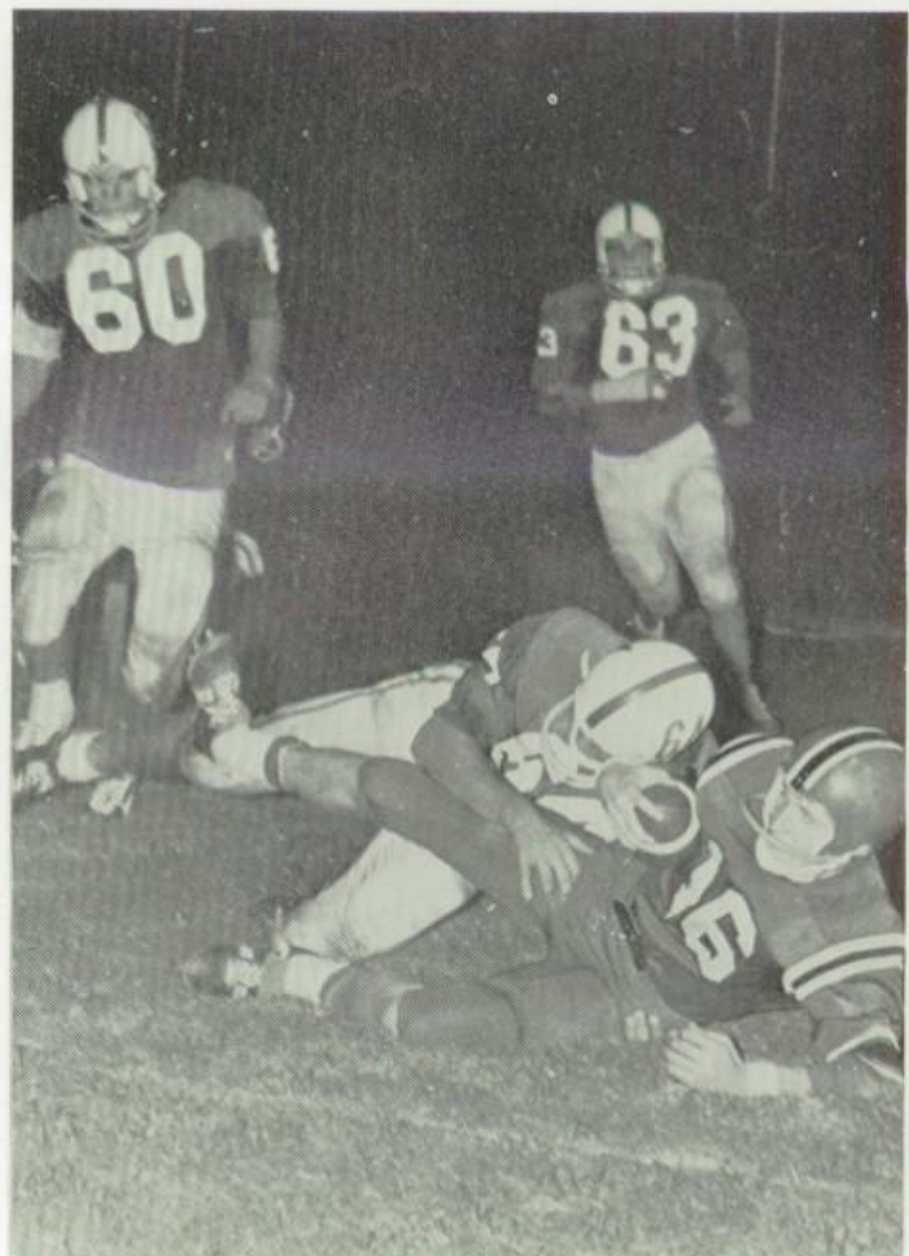

The Big Blue came to life after tying two ball games and stymied the Banks Jets for a victory in the final ten seconds of the game. For the first three quarters, play seesawed from one goal to another, halfback Terry Shivers scoring for the Poets the first quarter and Banks tallying in the second. Lanier got started in the opening moments of the third quarter; they marched the entire length of the field to score, when Billy Miller sneaked the ball over from the four. The Jets came back to score with fullback Hardin carrying, and with about nine minutes left, the Blue Wave started on a last ditch drive. They bogged down on the Banks' twenty-one yard line, but minute later, Bill Yates blocked a Banks' punt on the twenty-nine, and with under four minutes remaining, Lanier began the drive which culminated in Denny Taylor's scoring the winning touchdown with ten seconds to go.

LANIER 41—TUSCALOOSA COUNTY 7

With a well-deserved victory under their belts, the Poets literally "skinned" the Tuscaloosa County Wildcats. Led on offense by sparkling quarterback Billy Miller, and completely containing the Wildcats on defense, the Blue Torrent swamped the visitors with T.D.'s in every period, and the Blue reserves, seemingly as capable as the first string, played most of the second half. Among the Poet backs who played, five crossed the double stripes. Denny Taylor, one of our real mainstays, scored twice, with Bill Yates, Robert Adams, Wayne Cook, and Billy Miller tallying one time apiece. Ben McDavid with his talented toe, had a field day, as he booted five placements. In the last quarter the Wildcats managed to push across one T.D.—against the Blue subs.

LANIER 14—DOTHAN 20

The big tough Dothan Tigers, led by All-State fullback Barry Cotney, dealt the Poets their first defeat of the year in a very close contest. The Lanier team played well, and actually gained more yardage than Dothan, but they couldn't seem to come through with the vital advances in the crucial moments. Cotney managed to break through for two more scores. Following a punt blocked by Bill Yates, the Poets scored in the second quarter with Taylor carrying and McDavid adding the P.A.T. Their only other score came in the third period when Yates crashed over from the five. Trailing by one T.D. in the closing moments of the game, the Poets drove the entire length of the field, only to have the tying score called back with mere seconds to go. That was the final play of the first losing game of the 1961-1962 State Champions.

1963 FOOTBALL

LANIER 34—HUNTSVILLE 0

When the Huntsville Panthers visited Cramton Bowl this year, they took home with their bruises, recollections of a Poet eleven with real class. After a first quarter of intercepted passes, Lanier turned on the steam, with fullback Bill Yates leading the charge, and marched for five T.D.s. Ben McDavid, who also stood out in the line play, converted three P.A.T.s, and Billy Albright kicked one. Quarterback Billy Miller scored the first T.D. in the opening moments; Denny Taylor ran the second, and sophomore Earl Martin accounted for one. Yates scored on a sparkling fifty yard run, and Adams hit pay dirt when he cracked over from the one. The Blue defense was brilliant all night long. Marks, McDavid, Childs, Albright and Grubbs spent most of their time in the Huntsville backfield, and almost completely thwarted the Panther's offense. Lanier truly looked like championship material that night.

LANIER 58—WEST END 0

Exhausting a tremendous supply of the Battle Wagon's fireworks, the Big Blue romped a rueful West End team by nine T.D.s, scoring more points than they have in thirty-three years. Completely swamping the Birmingham boys offensively, Lanier never even punted. Every back on the bench got into the act as eight different players scored. Contrary to most high scoring teams, the Poets played excellently on defense, allowing the Lions to penetrate to the thirty-two yard line, excepting in the closing moments, when they reached the seven. After scoring four T.D.s in the first half, the varsity reluctantly handed the slaughter over to the "B" team, who did almost as well themselves, adding the five tallies that remained. The list of Poet scorers is actually too long to list; however, Terry Shiver, senior halfback, was the only back with two T.D.s.

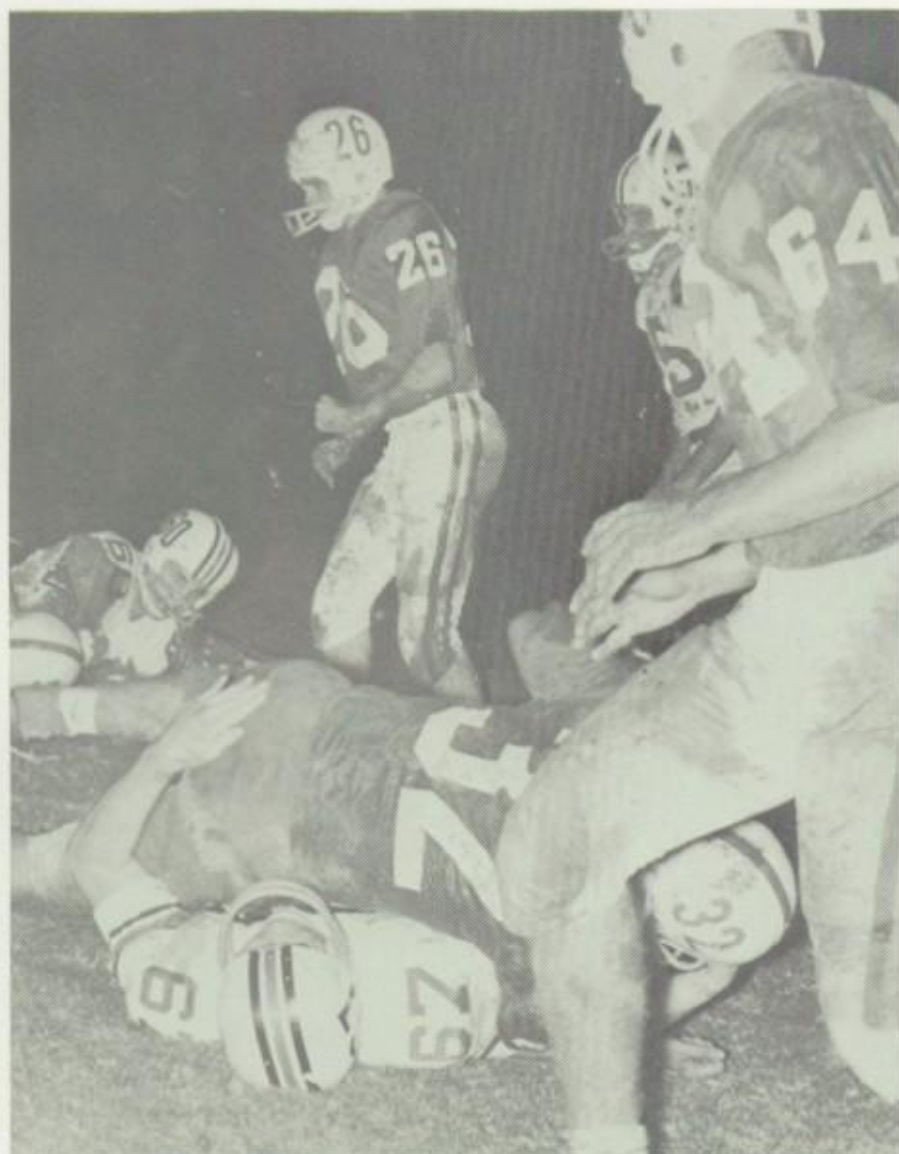

LANIER 40—MURPHY 6

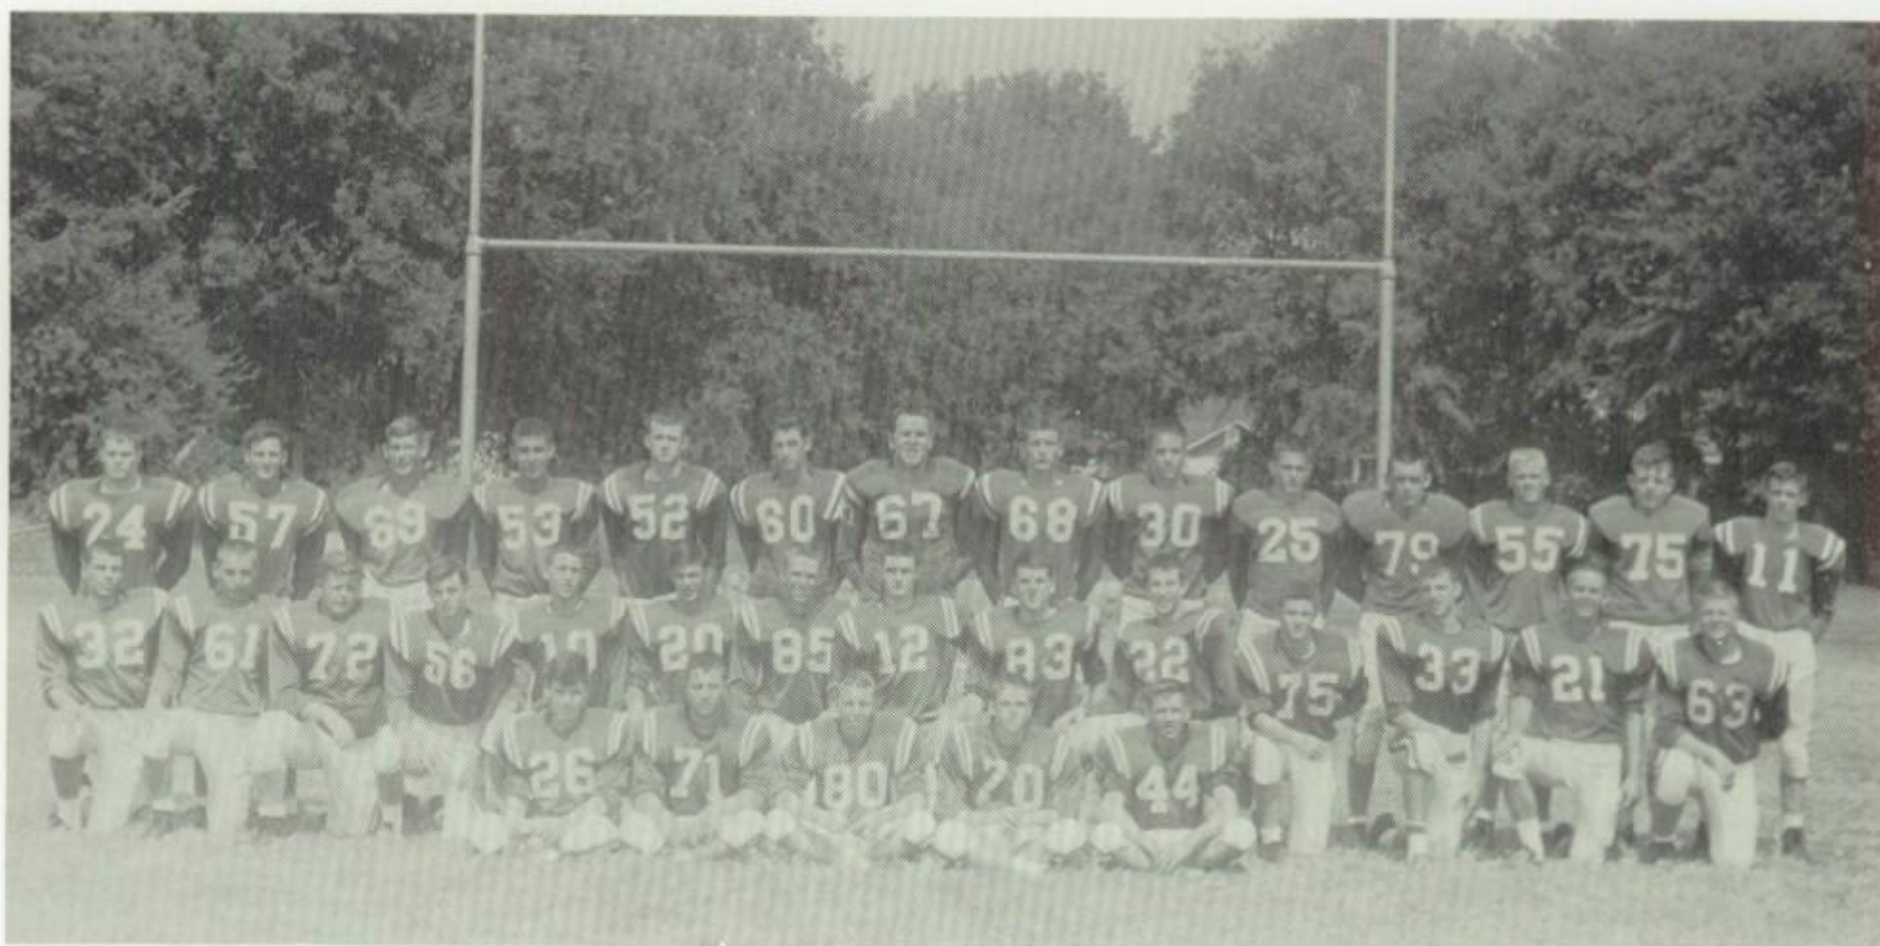

Journeying two hundred miles to play the Panthers of Murphy, the Poets had trouble with offensive play until the fourth quarter, when the Blue Bomb exploded for four T.D.s to swamp the Murphy eleven with a brilliant display of power. Quarterback Billy Miller, who has really made a football name for himself this year, passed for two of these scores, with Wayne Cook on the receiving end both times. Fullback Robert Adams and halfback Hunter Pope, bruising one hundred forty pound runner, tallied for the other two T.D.s. The scrappy Panthers shocked the Poet turnout by scoring early in the first quarter on the vaunted Blue defense. That, however, was all they got as the Lanier defensemen buckled down. Lanier's only scores in the first three quarters came on runs by backs Adams and Miller. The Poets lived up to their high point-per-game average after all.

LANIER 13—PHILLIPS 6

Playing in the worst weather, football fans had witnessed all year, the Lanier team had a tough time defeating the Red-Raiders from Phillips. On a muddy, wet, playing field, the Lanier "Fathers' Night" game was indeed a thriller. Lanier's star fullback, Bill Yates, led both teams in rushing and scored the Poets' only two T.D.s. End Wayne Cook also turned in a fine performance, standing out on a sixty-eight yard run which was nullified by a last moment clipping penalty. Lanier's first tally came in the first quarter on a forty-one yard sustained drive, which culminated in Yate's score. The mighty Blue defense held for the rest of the game, except for late in the third period when a Phillips fullback broke for a long run for the Raider's only score, and Phillips never even smelled pay dirt again. The Poets last score came in the same period.

"B" TEAM FOOTBALL

This, Coach Boykin's "B" team, had an impressive, undefeated record of 8-0. Many of these players showed promise and will be counted on heavily for the "Big Blue" team next year.

1962-63 STATE CHAMPIONS

RANDY THOMAS, Sr. Forward
Consistently a high scorer for the '63 Poets, Randy uses every shot in the book to his advantage, and very well.

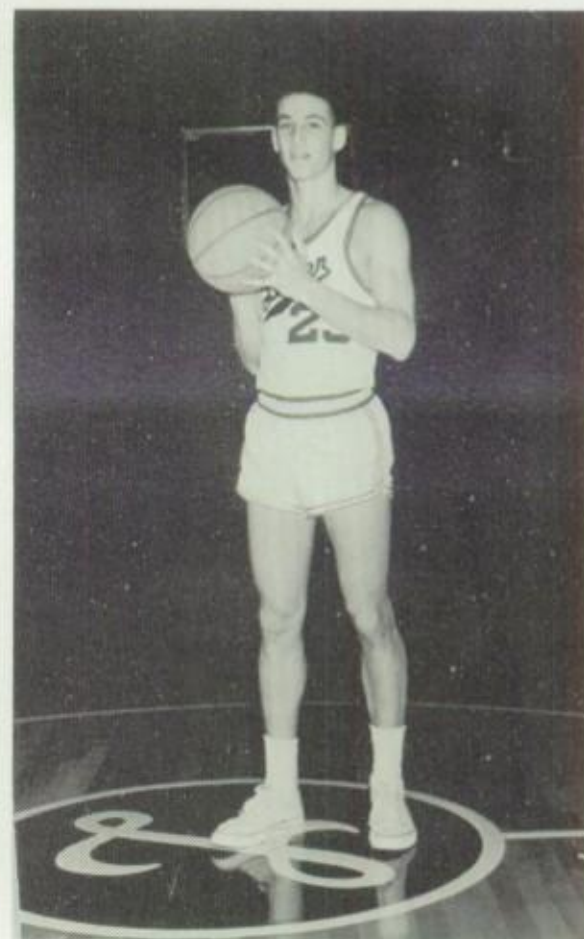

RONNIE KNOX, Sr. Center
Sporting an unstoppable hook shot and vastly superior rebounding, Ronnie is perhaps, the finest pivot man in the state.

LLOYD JULIAN, Jr. Forward
The only junior on the team, Lloyd may well be the best roundballer ever to come from Lanier. His natural abilities are tops.

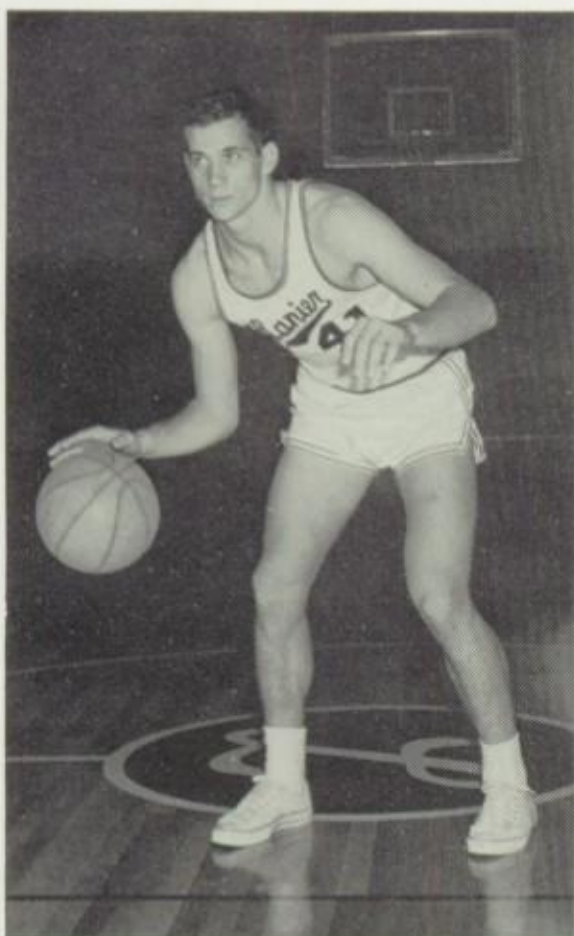

JOHN BRICKEN, Sr. Guard
No longer "little John," this superb outside shooter stays in there all the way. He is one of the mainstays of the Poets' fast break offense.

BOBBY KOHN, Sr. Guard
An excellent playmaker and driver, Bobby often leads the Poets' "surprise attack."

1962-63 STATE CHAMPIONS

WAYNE COOK, Sr. Forward

Unusual speed and strength makes this football hero one of the Poets' leading rebounders.

JIMMY YOUNG, Sr. Center

His height and accurate jump shot gave Jimmy a definite edge in the pivot, and he has played some mighty good basketball for "ol' Sidney L."

EDWIN JORDAN, Sr. Forward

Although playing the sixth man on Lanier's team this year, Edwin's hustling is an outstanding example of team leadership and his clutch scoring is deadly.

BEN McDAVID, Sr. Guard

Another star on the gridiron, Ben has one of the finest outside shots in the business. He is consistently a reliable substitute.

BILLY MILLER, Sr. Guard

A very good player all round, Billy is often called on in the close moments and responds beautifully.

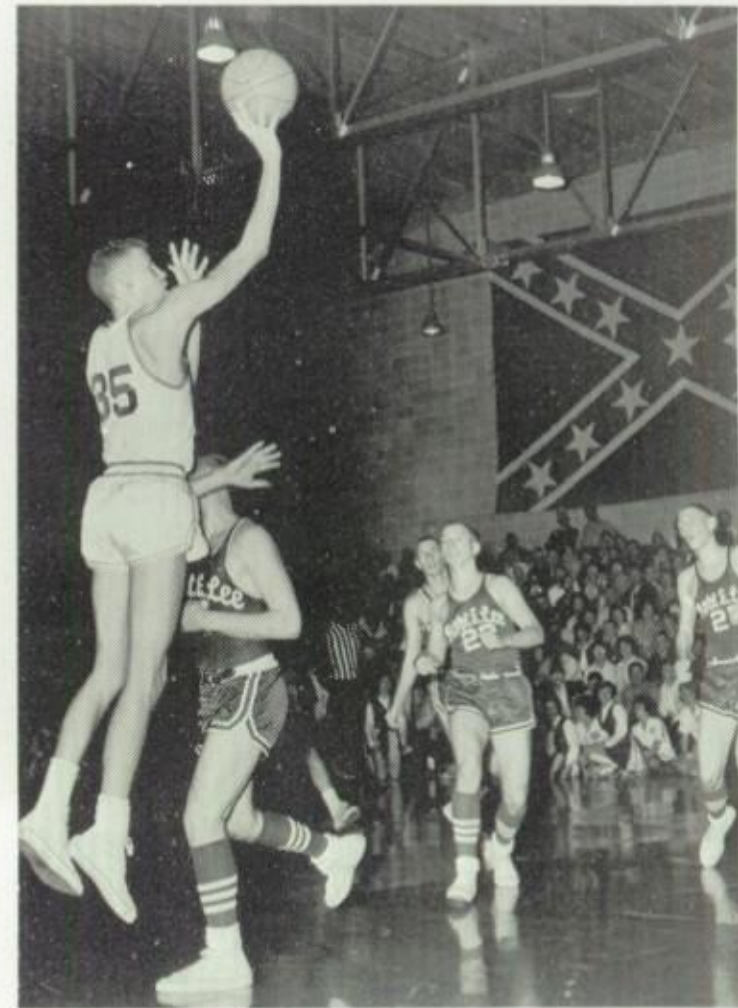

1962-63 STATE CHAMPIONS

Knox gets the tip-off.

"Doesn't that fool know we changed goals at the half?"

"Frog" Jordan hits a jump-shot.

Our Lanier Poets of 1963 are to be heartily congratulated. The men of the cage sport captured five tournaments and won an unbelievable thirty-five basketball games. What a record!

Sidney Lanier's basketball team was cast in a difficult position for this season. We were the defending State Champions, and everyone was out to beat us. We got off to a fast start and won the Peanut Bowl Invitational Tourney just before Christmas. The next championship was picked up in the state's finest Holiday event, the Shades Valley Invitational. As the New Year rolled in, the Poets rolled on. Another tournament was won; this time it was the Confederate Conference meet. With this blaze of victory came a funny, little feeling known as pressure. The Lanier team had a twenty-eight game winning streak over two seasons when it journeyed to Tuscaloosa one cold, rainy night in January. The temperature was in the twenties, but the Poets were even more frigid. The Black Bears won; the bubble had burst! Lanier was no longer the best team in the state. The cry of revenge was heard, but when Lanier and Tuscaloosa had their Montgomery encounter, Tuscaloosa won again. Were the Poets out of the race for the state title?

Coach Bill Joiner and his hard-working men of the hardwood got down to the job at hand. There were two tournaments to win; tournament-wise the Poets had been unbeatable—both individually and collectively. Randy Thomas and John Bricken had been honored as the Most Valuable Player in the SVIT and the CBCT respectively. Ronnie Knox and Ed Jordan had also received All-Tournament commendations. The first step in that long walk to the coveted crown was capturing the District Tournament. This was done in a terrific fashion as the Poets averaged ninety points a game in recording smashing wins over Catholic, Greensboro, Clanton, and Selma. With this obstacle out of the way, Lanier marched to the University of Alabama to compete in the State Tournament. To make a long story short, we won that tournament. The Poets displayed overpowering strength in turning back Butler of Huntsville, Tuscaloosa County, and Emma Sansom to advance to the finals. The whole world knows who we beat for the championship. It was that old "thorn-in-the-side"—the Tuscaloosa Black Bears. Bricken and Thomas were named All-State for their great performances. These two were backed up tremendously by Knox, Jordan, Lloyd Julian, Bobby Kohn, Billy Miller, Jimmy Young, Wayne Cook, and Ben McDavid. All of Alabama is proud of its State Champions. Lanier is the undisputed king!

1963 TRACK

ALLEN DEES, Sr. High Jump

A three year letterman, Allen placed in the state last year and is expected to be in contention for honors this year.

GEORGE EDMONDSON, Sr. 440

George, a star on last year's mile relay team, is one of the state's best quarter milers.

WAYNE COOK, Sr. Pole Vaulter

Wayne, who is quite famous for his grid-iron exploits, is also an outstanding track man.

LLOYD JULIAN, Jr. Hurdler

Lloyd, well known for his basketball, is equally outstanding in track, and is one of the few returning lettermen.

PAUL ROBERTSON, Sr. High Jump

Although Paul lettered in the broad jump, he shows promise this year of becoming one of the state's outstanding high-jumpers.

CAL RILEY, Jr. Hurdler

Cal, a returning letterman, gives promise of becoming one of the best hurdlers in the state.

1963 TRACK

RANDY FARMER, Sr. Hurdler
Randy waited until he was a senior to go out for track, but his speed and determination will make him a great asset to the thinclads.

BILL YATES, Jr. Shot Put, Discus
Our star fullback, Bill is expected to put his muscles to good use in the weight events.

RUSTY BRANTLEY, Soph. Miler
In addition to doing a fine job as a miler Rusty, another cross-country letterman, is expected to provide much excitement on the track trips.

BILL MARKS, Jr. Pole Vaulter
Bill showed, by placing fourth in an outstanding field of vaulters, that he will be one of the finest pole vaulters in the state.

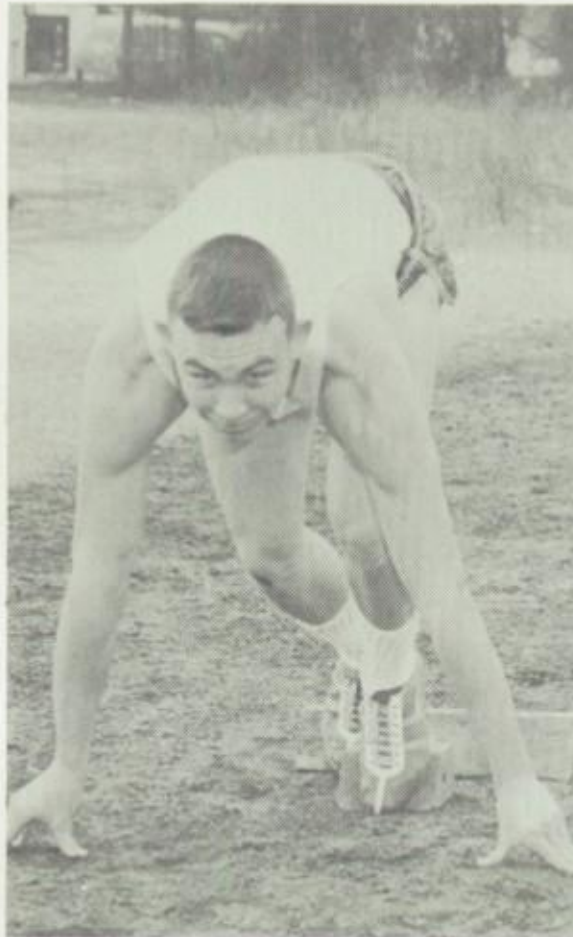

GENE BROOKER, Jr. Pole Vaulter
Gene, another "Big Blue" lineman, will use his strength and agility to give him great potential in the pole vaulting events.

1963 TRACK

JEFF SAMUEL, Soph. 880

Only a sophomore, Jeff proved himself to be one of the outstanding distance men in the state by winning the 880 in the John Carroll meet. The track team will be relying on him quite heavily next year.

JIM LLEWELLYN, Jr. Sprinter, Hurdler
His great speed will make "Kissing Jim" a sure bet for honors in the sprints and low hurdles this year.

TERRY SHIVERS, Sr. Sprinter
A star in football, Terry is the fastest man on the Poet track team. He is our prime threat in the sprints and will probably anchor the 440 relay team.

SILAS GARRET, Jr. 880

Lettering last year, Si was one of the few sophomores to make the finals in any event last year. He is a top 880 man.

SHAG LUSTER, Soph. 440
A member of our fabulous relay team while a sophomore, Shag is expected to set records in the 440.

RICHMOND FLOWERS, Soph. 440
Another outstanding sophomore, Richmond is a member of the Poet mile relay that placed third in the Coliseum Track Meet.

1963 TRACK

CARLTON KING, Soph. Miler
Carlton has already lettered in cross country and shows great promise of becoming an exceptional miler.

JAMES BOYNTON, Soph. 880
James has been a pleasant surprise for "Snoozy" and is expected to do fine job as a junior.

RUBIN PIHA, Jr. Hurdler
Fine speed and hard work have made Rubin one of the best hurdlers on the Poet track squad.

TERRY DAVIS, Soph. Broad Jumper
A record breaker in junior high, Terry is expected to do as well this year for the Poets.

BILL ROWLEN, Soph. Pole Vaulter
Bill has great potential and is expected to do especially well after he has had more experience.

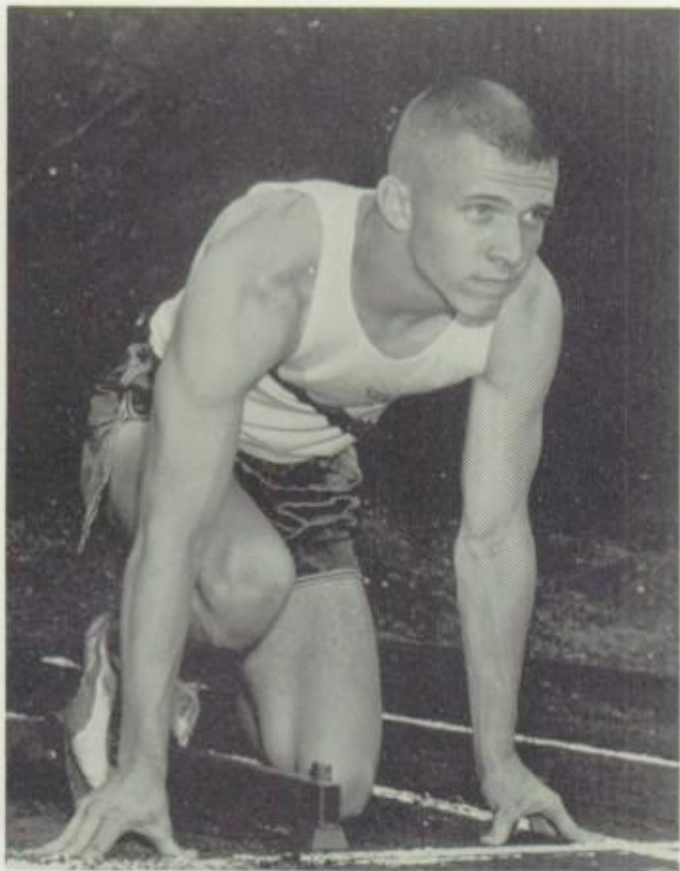

JACK MARSH, Soph. Broad Jumper
Only a sophomore, Jack has the potential and desire to become an outstanding field man.

1963 TRACK

FIRST ROW: Rubin Piha, James Boynton, Carlton King, Rusty Brantley, Jim Llewellyn, Terry Shivers, Jeff Samuel
 SECOND ROW: Lloyd Julian, Paul Robertson, Denny Taylor, George Edmondson, Randy Farmer, Shag Luster, Terry Davis, Scott Hecker

DENNY TAYLOR, Sr. Sprinter, Captain
 Denny, a returning letterman, has been an outstanding member of the Poet track team for three years. The respect which his teammates have for Denny is shown by their electing him captain.

At this writing the future for the Poet thinclads looks bright. Starting their second year under the tutelage of Coach "Snoozy" Jones, the Poets have several returning lettermen and a host of promising newcomers. Lettermen include Allen Dees, Paul Robertson, George Edmondson, Silas Garrett, Denny Taylor, Terry Shiver, Cal Riley, Wayne Cook, and Lloyd Julian. Bill Marks, Jim Llewellyn, Shag Luster, Jeff Samuels, and Richmond Flowers have been especially outstanding among the non-lettermen.

Thus far this year, the Sidney Lanier track team has participated in two indoor track meets. At the first, the John Carroll Indoor Meet in Birmingham, the Poets did an outstanding job and tied for second. Among those that placed were Cal Riley, Jeff Samuels, Allen Dees, George Edmondson, and the mile relay team. Jeff Samuels took the only gold medal of the night. Only a sophomore, Jeff won the 880. Jeff was a star for Marion last year. The mile relay team which promises to be one of the most outstanding in the state was composed of George Edmondson, Shag Luster, Richmond Flowers, and Denny Taylor. At the Coliseum Relays here in Montgomery, Lanier did not fair quite so well. This was due to the fact that they were competing against the best high schools in the South. Again the mile relay team was outstanding as they placed third. Bill Marks, a junior pole vaulter, pulled one of the surprises of the meet as he placed fourth. His vault of twelve feet was indeed outstanding.

As the outdoor season starts, the prospects look bright for the Poets. The Poets are especially strong in the quarter mile. Participants in this event include George Edmondson, Lloyd Julian, Denny Taylor, Shag Luster, Richmond Flowers, and Buddy Hall. Hall, an outstanding junior end in football, is a newcomer to track but has shown in time trials that he will be a definite asset. In the 880, Jeff Samuels and Silas Garrett give the Poets two of the finest half milers in the state. Sprinters, Terry Shiver and Jim Llewellyn round out the Poet running corps. Cal Riley lettered last year in the hurdles as a sophomore and is expected to be outstanding again this year. Allen Dees, a two-year letterman, placed in the state last year and is expected to do as well this year. Paul Robertson, another letterman, is also expected to do well in the high jump and broad jump. Jack March, a sophomore from Bellingrath has also given great promise in the broad jump. In the pole vault Bill Marks is expected to do well. Returning lettermen combined with a host of surprises make this one of the most promising track teams Lanier has had in recent years.

1962 CROSS COUNTY

KNEELING: Jeff Samuel, Rusty Brantley, Carlton King. STANDING: Silas Garrett, Denny Taylor, Scott Hecker

1963 BASEBALL

KNEELING: John Glasscock, Larry Elliott, Randy Thomas, Ronnie Knox, Jimmy Young, Steve Walker
STANDING: Piet Nieman, Frank Hagood, John Bricken, Russel Lackey, Ben McDavid, Mickey Mask

1963 BASEBALL

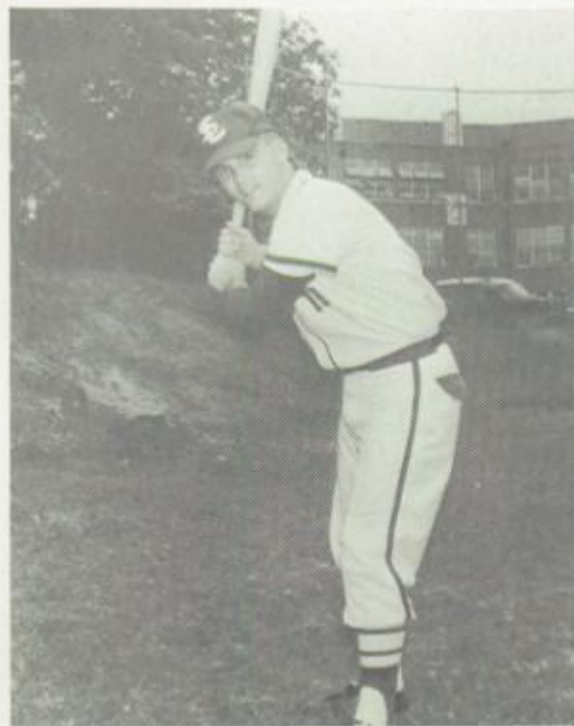

RANDY THOMAS, Sr. First base and Pitcher

This great all-around athlete possesses an assortment of pitches. Randy is a very powerful hitter.

RONNIE KNOX, Sr. Pitcher

This 6'7" star uses his height to good advantage with a big delivery and pinpoint control.

RUSSELL LACKEY, Sr. Catcher

A real baseball veteran with that "spark-plug chatter." Exceptional defensive ability as the Poet backstop.

BEN McDAVID, Sr. Third base and Pitcher

Because of his consistent bat and excellent moundwork, this Poet made All-State as a junior.

JOHN BRICKEN, Sr. Shortstop

Quick wrists and precise timing are the factors in making this basketballer a great baseballer—both defensively and offensively.

1963 BASEBALL

JOHN SCHEMSER, Jr. Rightfield
Good eye and a grooved swing makes this junior a steady performer at the plate.

PIET NIEMAN, Jr. Second base
Speed and hustle are two talents that are put to use as an infielder and base runner.

MICKEY MASK, Jr. Second base
This "mighty mite" has an eagle eye and size which enables him to draw that much-needed walk.

FRANK HAGOOD, Jr. Outfield
With a keen eye and a natural ability this Poet is a real threat with a bat. He can hit both the homerun and game winning single.

LOUIS ANDERSON, Jr. Pitcher
A real workhorse with a smooth style and confusing tactics.

1963 BASEBALL

JIMMY YOUNG, Sr. Pitcher and First base
A member of Lanier's outstanding mound corps. Durable arm plus good control makes him tough on opponents.

BILL LEDYARD, Sr. Catcher
A rugged competitor with a strong arm and long-ball power.

LARRY ELLIOT, Sr. Third base and Pitcher
This talented footballer brings his abilities to the diamond. Fine glove man at the keystone spot.

JOHN GLASSCOCK, Sr. Leftfield
This southpaw contributes to the team with his quick prowess as an outfielder and timely hits as a batter.

STEVE WALKER, Jr. Centerfield
A dependable, defensive specialist with an accurate arm, Steve is a real heads-up base-runner.

Really, girls! The Bunny Hop?

Who says Ronnie can out-jump me?

Here we go loop t' loop.

SPORTS

Sadie Hawkin's Day: Ready, Set, GO!

If Casey only knew . . .

Up and away we go.

Did you see it, too?

What are they after?

String along with Mitch.

Keep your eyes on the target, girls.

Round and around and around . . .

All together now, one, two, three.

A C T I V I T I E S

The golden hours of youth that swiftly pass are caught here forever in memories that time cannot erase. Enshrine these in your heart and look at them often.

Another STUDIOUS year begins as the Poets return to school.

Sophomores in a state of confusion.

"I think I'm going to like Senior boys; what about you Jackie?"

Seniors fatten up the Sophomores at the Seniors Girls' Tea.

Mr. Adair welcomes Mr. Glazner back to school.

No, this isn't a biology class—it's Soph. elections.

Mrs. Watson and Mr. Knox have done an outstanding job on the P-TO this year.

The R.O.T.C. rifle team

The R.O.T.C. elected their sponsors at the beginning of the year.

"For fools rush in where angels fear to tread."

Coach Wilson talks with our 1962 football captains.

The band begins another successful year with enjoyable half time shows.

The cheerleaders arrive at the parking lot to lead our caravan.

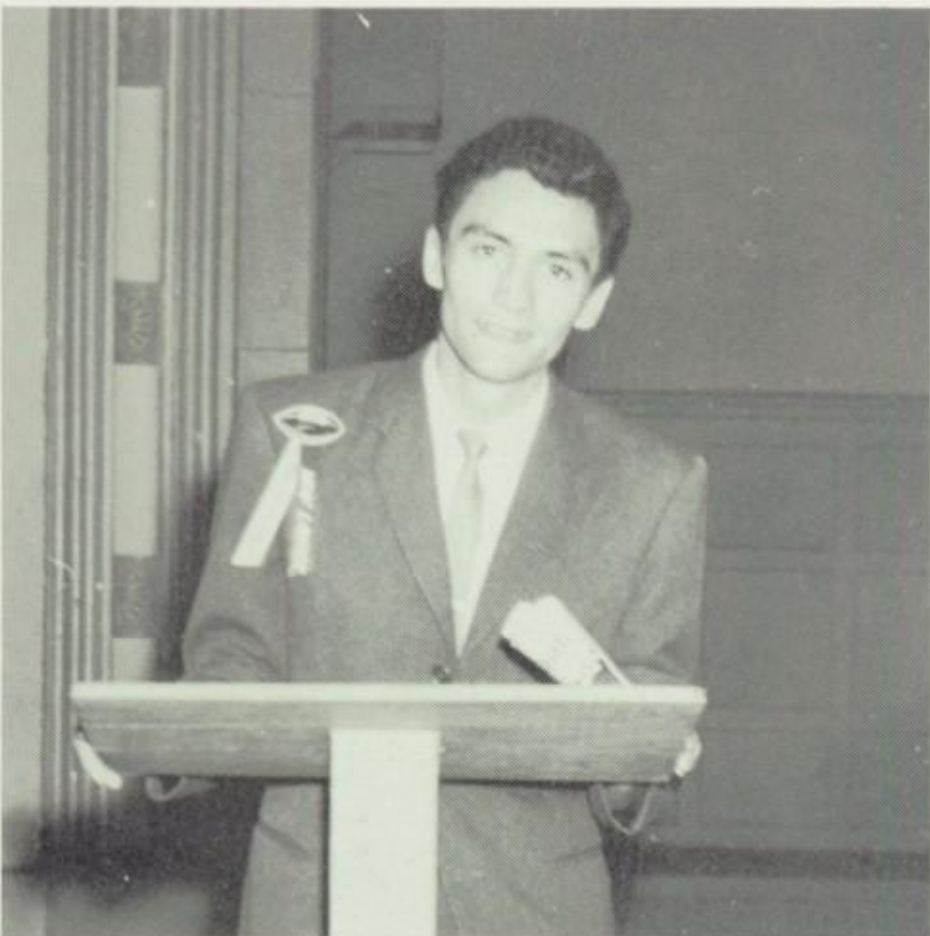

Dr. Jeckle and Miss Hyde

Everyone had his picture made for the Oracle.

The swimming team pauses after a swim.

Carlos brings the true spirit of International House.

Billy Miller escorts Shirley Curlee in the 1962 Beauty Ball lead-out.

HOMECOMING

The Homecoming Court: Lucy Oliver, Jan Gilliland, Isabel Clark, and Libbo Yarbrough.

"Smile! You're on Candid Camera."

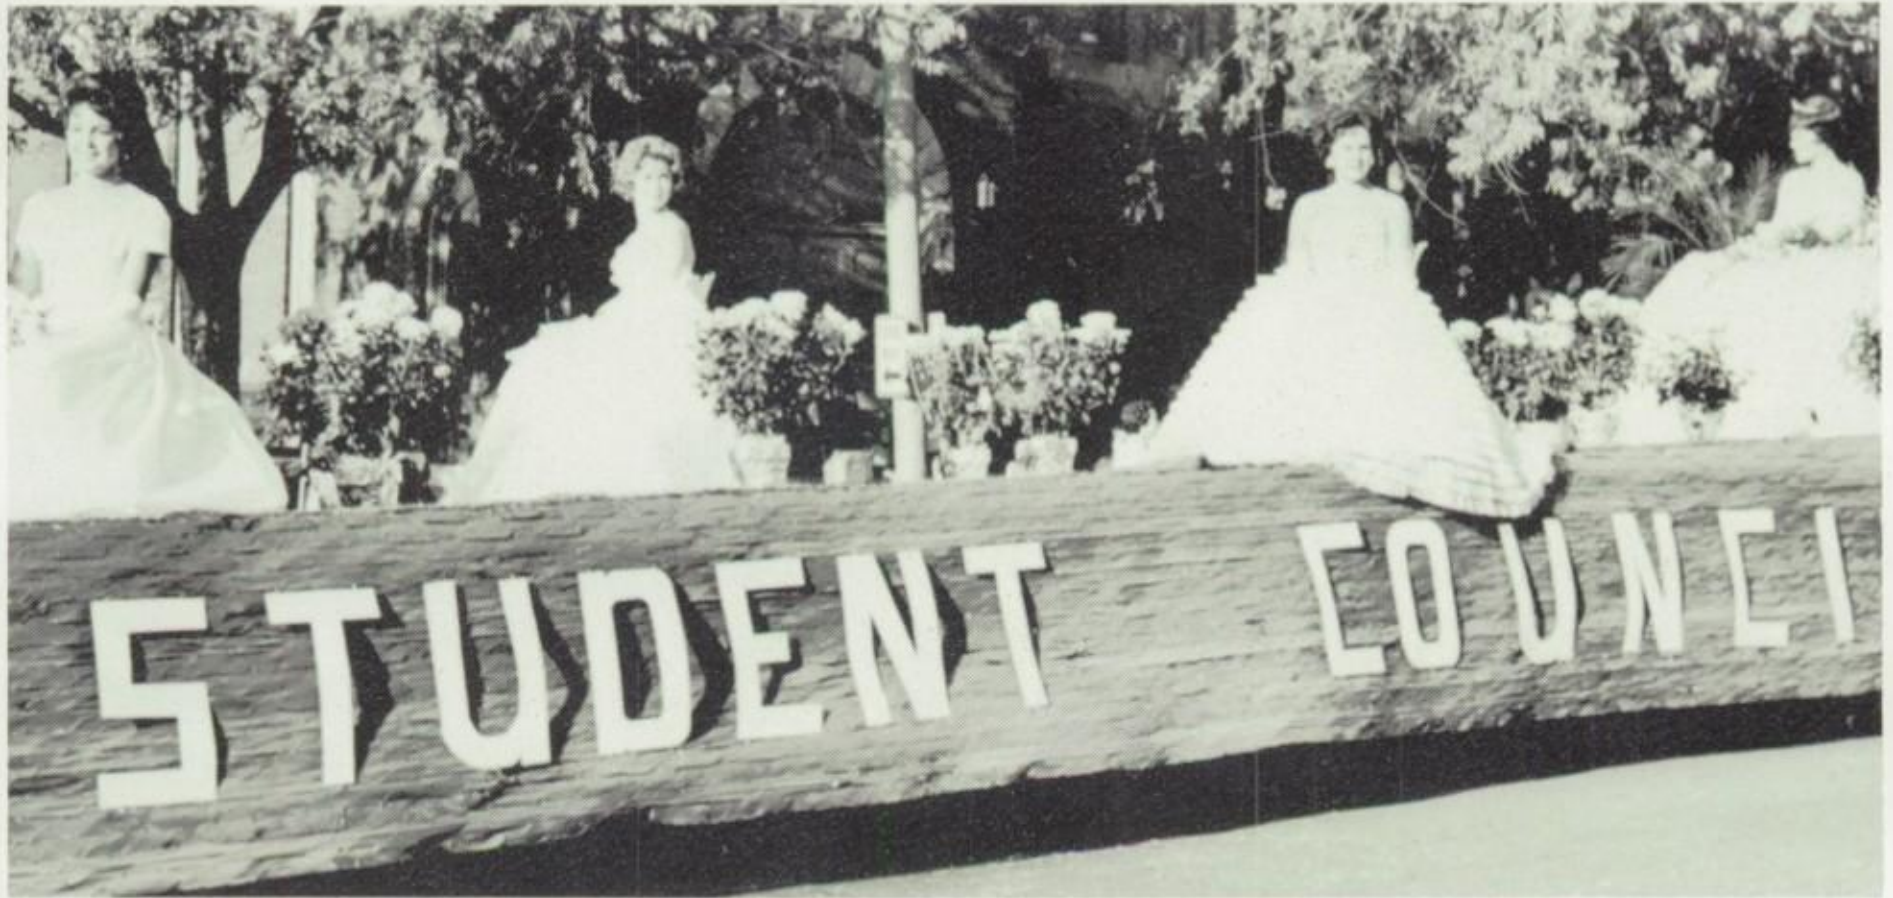

"I'm not afraid of the big bad wolf."

"I crown you Queen Jan"

1963

The Homecoming float led the others in the parade.

"Do you really think I could pass for No. 26?"

"What is it?"

Billy Miller runs for another touchdown.

THE LANIER

The spirit of Lanier broke loose as everyone piled into the auditorium.

"Coach Wilson, are you giving a pep talk or singing a song?"

"Come on, Poets . . . Let's go!"

The Poets pose for a picture before the game.

The stands were packed awaiting the start of the game.

The cheerleaders began making decorations two weeks before Lanier-Lee Day.

Poets give thanks at the Thanksgiving program presented by the Music Class.

The history students finally got Miss Walker to attend her first basketball game since 1923.

6'6" Ronnie gets the tip-off as usual.

Lanier plays first game in the new gym.

The true spirit of Christmas.

"Merry Christmas, Sweetheart."

TIME: 3:00 P.M.
PLACE: Poet Parking Lot.

EXAMS! One week away . . .

. . . And the Seniors "study hard" to master the finer points of bridge.
"Look, Hunter! We have all five aces!"

The Blue and White Staff boards the train for the annual trip to New York.

It's A.E.A., and everyone heads for P.C.

One Senior girl finally got a date for Twirp Week by promising to take him out to eat.

Lucy, is that the ad you're taking back to Mrs. Grove after she was nice enough to let you go out during first period?

Poets receive 1963 Oracles from editors.

School's out . . . Relief and relaxation

GRADUATION

The curtain closes on another school year.

P A T R O N S

You have made this Oracle possible.
Were it not for you, the record of these fruitful years would perish, and a part of our history would be lost forever.
Accept our gratitude, offered in sincerity.

For a number of years, I taught in Lanier High School. Trying always to impress the virtue of honesty upon my students, I required them to give a pledge that they had neither given, nor received help on their examinations. One young man handed in his paper with this pledge on it: "I haven't received no help on this exam, and gosh knows I couldn't give any."

Mr. Fred Baber — School Photographer

Babs,
Keep on being the person
you were when I knew you,
and you'll be pretty great!
Lots of luck always.

Your friend forever,
Duane Newby

Babs,
It was just
knowing you.
Best wishes and at Bellingrath just love you,
I love

Babs,
I will never forget
when we were friends together at Bellingrath and I hope you will never forget either I wish you all the luck in the world.

Patti Touts

Babs,
We surely have missed you this year in Montgomery.
I hope you've had as much fun you've first year in high school as I have. I can't wait till I can see you in the real live flesh. In the meantime have a nice summer.

Anne Bottoms

Babs,
I really enjoyed knowing you at Bellingrath. You're a real sweet girl.
I wish you the best in life. Keep smiling!
Come to see me.

Ann Hammer

Babs,

I certainly did enjoy knowing you at Bellingrath. ~~And~~ Remember how we suffered in Art Class?
You're a real sweet girl and I wish you the best of everything in life. Hope to see you soon.

Clara Butler

Babs,
I surely am glad I got to know you at Bellingrath.
I'm glad you're coming back too. Won't it be great?! Good luck always and the best of everything.

Love ya.
Emily Mills
